Present

Web Developer

(www.pathpledge.in)

Currently working at PathPledge as a Full Stack Developer, where I lead the development of scalable web solutions tailored to fintech industry needs. Alongside development, I actively contribute to lead generation, SEO, and digital strategy based on business goals. Collaborating closely with the core team, I ensure that both the tech and growth aspects of the company move in sync. The experience has been dynamic, hands-on, and truly rewarding.

Globopstech pvt ltd

Aug- Jan (2024-2025)

Front-end Developer

My journey as a web developer began at GlobopsTech, where I built my first professional website — www.globopstech.com during my internship. This project not only gave me hands-on experience in real-world web development but also laid the foundation for my growth into full-stack development and client-centric solutions.
